

Addendum to the Adriatic Charter signed May 2, 2003

Bosnia and Herzegovina and Montenegro affirm and adhere to the principles outlined in the Charter of Partnership signed May 2, 2003 among the United States, Albania, Croatia and Macedonia (Adriatic Charter). As Partners, we are dedicated to strengthening our efforts to intensify domestic reforms, as well as bilateral, regional, and multilateral political, defense, and economic cooperation.

Aiming to assist other States in the region in their efforts to fully integrate into the Euro-Atlantic community, particularly the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, the existing Partners extend their support to Montenegro and Bosnia and Herzegovina, fully confident that their participation in the Adriatic Charter will contribute to the promotion of regional cooperation and security. Since its inception, the Adriatic Charter has proved its strong contribution towards achieving the common vision of a Europe whole, free and at peace.
